

Christian

September 1, 2016

Summer is over and out and it's time to go to school.

Classwork is very occupying when you are bored.

Homework is meant to be done at home.

Out to recess after lunch to play games and have fun.

Opportunities to learn new things about things that will make us smart.

Learning new skills to help us later on in life.