

Holly Jolly Homophones

When my mom baked cookies, the smell of cinnamon filled the _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. heir

B. air

Holly Jolly Homophones

When my mom baked cookies, the smell of cinnamon filled the _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. heir

B. air ←

Holly Jolly Homophones

The day after Thanksgiving, my grandpa took me shopping to try to find some gifts on

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. sail

B. sale

Holly Jolly Homophones

The day after Thanksgiving, my grandpa took me shopping to try to find some gifts on

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. sail

B. sale

Holly Jolly Homophones

My dad was going to make his famous apple pies, so we went down the grocery store's baking _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. isle

B. aisle

Holly Jolly Homophones

My dad was going to make his famous apple pies, so we went down the grocery store's baking _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. isle

B. aisle ←

Holly Jolly Homophones

My teacher's favorite holiday _____
is the poinsettia.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. flower

B. flour

Holly Jolly Homophones

My teacher's favorite holiday _____
is the poinsettia.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. flower ←

B. flour

Holly Jolly Homophones

When my little brother saw his new bike, all he could do was _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

- A. stair
- B. stare

Holly Jolly Homophones

When my little brother saw his new bike, all he could do was _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. stair

B. stare ←

Holly Jolly Homophones

After eating a big family dinner, we still had so much food, that my mom said that we'd have leftovers the next day, so that no food would go to

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. waste

B. waist

Holly Jolly Homophones

After eating a big family dinner, we still had so much food, that my mom said that we'd have leftovers the next day, so that no food would go to

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. waste ←

B. waist

Holly Jolly Homophones

We got a Christmas tree this year that was so tall, it almost touched the _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. ceiling

B. sealing

Holly Jolly Homophones

We got a Christmas tree this year that was so tall, it almost touched the _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. ceiling ←

B. sealing

Holly Jolly Homophones

The wreath on our door wasn't _____,
so my dad tried to fix it.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. strait

B. straight

Holly Jolly Homophones

The wreath on our door wasn't _____,
so my dad tried to fix it.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. strait

B. straight ←

Holly Jolly Homophones

My uncle was really excited when he unwrapped a new fishing _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. real

B. reel

Holly Jolly Homophones

My uncle was really excited when he unwrapped a new fishing _____.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. real

B. reel ←

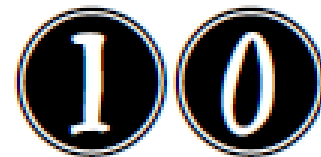

Holly Jolly Homophones

We were laughing so hard when my grandma told us some funny _____ from her childhood.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. tales

B. tails

Holly Jolly Homophones

We were laughing so hard when my grandma told us some funny _____ from her childhood.

Which homophone would fit in this sentence?

A. tales ←

B. tails

