

Aiden Adores Being Animals and Objects

I'd like to be an ant so I could help build our colony's homes
I'd prefer to be a dog toy so I can be thrown and then glide in the air
I'd want to be a water bottle so I could be flipped and landed
I'd desire to be a Brazilian Wandering Spider so I can do a dance to scare my predators off
I'd enjoy being a snake so I could slither and hang I'd adore being a squirrel so I could jump from tree to tree and fall when I miss
I'd admire being bold words so I could pop out and scream at my reader
I'd select to be a fat cat so I could be on try not to laugh videos
I'd appreciate being a giraffe because I could see the beautiful world around me
I'd wish to be a mountain so I could conquer climbers
I'd be pleased to be synonyms that are verbs for like so I can make it hard for people to find me for a poem
I'd esteem to be a football so I can be thrown and caught
I'd care to be a security camera so I could see everything taught in school at once
I'd love to be a bear so I could knock over people's trash cans
I'd reckon to be a computer so everyone would respect me for my smart-minded abilities
