My Wonderful Imagination

I'd like to be a bird to fly open and free
I'd love to be a shark so I could be king of the sea
I'd care to be a monkey so I could swing from the tallest of trees
I'd groove to be an ant building and making a home for me
I'd dig to be a rocket ship to go to distant lands
I'd adore being an owl so I could be stealthy and quiet
I'd covet being a space rover to find new things
I'd relish being a book so I could have a lot of knowledge
I'd wish to be a lizard to change color and patterns
I'd desire to be a snowflake so I could whirl and twirl
I'd yearn to be a bee to make honey for the hive
I'd crave to be a squirrel to gather nuts and live in a tree
I'd enjoy being a snake so I could move in weird ways
I'd appreciate being a tree to make air for all the living things
I'd prefer to be a sea star to look mythical in the water
