

My Other 15 Lives from Dreamland

I'd like to be a football so I could sleep in the equipment bags after practice
I'd enjoy being a book so I could bring dreams to my readers
I'd choose to be a monkey so that I could fly through the jungle
I'd prefer being a computer so I'll be able to answer anyone's questions
I'd love to be a flag so I can holler all day for patriots to save me
I'd want to be a tree growing and reaching for the stars
I'd adore being a barking puppy so I can get that stick
I'd care to be a TV so I could throw out pictures for others to watch
I'd admire being an oven so I could breathe out heat for anything
I'd desire to be a shirt so I could show off my owner's personality
I'd be fond of being a bird so I could have my reflection shine on the river
I'd appreciate being a video game so I could slap a cut scene out of nowhere
I'd favor being a chocolate bar so I could press the flavor button in my eater's mouth
I'd heed to be a bear so I could feast on my prey
I'd decide on being a backpack so I could carry my owner's items like a boss
