Extraordinary Thoughts

I'd wish to be a parrot so I can copy people without getting in trouble
I'd consider being a tree so I can live for over a thousand years
I'd want to be a computer so I can be the smartest thing in the world
I'd like to be a dog so I can eat with my face and not get yelled at
I'd love to be a falcon so I can fly over my house and retrieve my belongings
I'd enjoy being a cloud so I could make it snow whenever I want
I'd desire to be a bear so I can sleep all winter without getting disturbed
I'd reckon to be a pair of old socks so I would be warm in the drawer
I'd prefer being a car so I can trick people by moving before they get in the car
I'd regard being a lizard so I can always win at Hide and Seek I'd care to be a tablet so I can verse people and win
I'd see myself being a mountain so I can create an avalanche for people I hate
I'd relish being a snake so I can wrestle with prey and predators
I'd view to be a cheetah so I can win all marathons
I'd like being an ocean so I can live to see the future
