

What Would I Like To Be?

I'd like to be a giraffe then I could touch even the tallest of trees
I'd love to be a sink so I could wash all of the terrible feelings away
I'd enjoy being a kangaroo so I could jump higher than all of the rest
I'd prefer to be a pencil ... then I could always write what I was thinking
I'd want to be a clock so I'll always know the time and never be late
I'd select being a lion so I could roar louder than ever heard before
I'd desire to be an eagle so I could stretch out my wings and fly to be free
I'd wish to be an American flag so I could wave in the wind to honor our country
I'd care to be a peacock so I could have beautiful and unique feathers
I'd crave to be a book so I would always have a great story nearby
I'd choose to be a fish so I could gracefully swim through the sea
I'd consider being a rhino so I would always be able to defend myself
I'd appreciate being a recycling bin so I could always help the Earth be a better place
I'd adore being a dolphin so I could leap happily from the water
I'd relish being a service dog then I would always be making a huge difference
